VOL. XVII.

THE GREAT SWINDLES.

PENETRATED BY THE STAR ROUTE CONSPIRATORS.

The Report of the Springer Committee on the Origin, Growth, and Progress of the Republic of the Slaveholders Who Thrived Under the Administration of Good Mr. Hayes.

I took Swift's poison, and it forced me to the poison and built me up from the first dose.

HORRORS OF MINERAL POISONING.

ATLANTA, Ga., August 25, 1884.—When a man is over 25 years old, being a railroad man, the result of the action and the poising of my whole system was to break the skin on my face two years ago I broke the skin on my face the poison in my blood produced an ulceration which was regarded necessary. But instead of the operation performed I commented on the symptom of the blood poison which disappeared, and now I have been for years, and no headache in saying that this is the best medicine in the world I know, as I give many of them a fair trial, I really believe the S. S. S. has added ten years to my life. J. H. MORAN.

He Prescribed It.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 28, 1884.—I have prescribed in many cases both for blood poison as a tonic, with the most wonderful results in both long standing cases. B. M. STOCKLAND.

Inoculated Poison.

Four years ago I became the victim of a fatal blood poison, communicated by a knife in the infant, and thence through the breast, and to the heart, and lungs, to drive the poison into my system, only to break out in worse on other portions of my body. This poison is now sound and well. It is the greatest blessing which has come to mankind in years. Mrs. T. W. LEE.

My mother, who is about seventy-five years old, is a resident of Dooley county, has an ingested a large amount of mercury, and ever since has been aggravated to a fearful degree, and even to the point of death. After six months' suffering I induced her to see a doctor. One bottle had the remarkable effect of producing a perfect cure, and there has no recurrence of the disease. P. H. CRUMPLER.

Of the South Georgia Conference, Atlanta, Ga., July 14, 1884.

An Atlanta Man Abroad.

Victoria, Vancouver's Island, B. C., September 1, 1884.—I had a delightful trip up the coast from San Francisco, and stopped over a few hours here, did not expect to see any familiar faces here, and was surprised to learn from the manager of the hotel that he had seen the well known bottles of S. S. S. made by the Swift Specific company at Atlanta—and was a little surprised to learn from the manager that it was the best popular blood remedy. It sells here entirely in the meritorious cures it has effected, as there seems to be no advertising.

From Talbotton.

Talbotton, Ga., September 12, 1884.—My little boy, now seven years old, broke out when a half week old with what the doctors called a vesicle beginning on the head. He was treated for five years or more by various physicians without relief, and the little boy's condition grew worse and worse until his health was gone. I was induced to use on him Swift's Specific, and two bottles cured him sound and well—and there has been no sign of a return of the disease. F. O. HOWES.

Note by the S. S. Co.—Swift's Specific has the singular effect of children being a perfectly painless and comfortable preparation it does not produce any of the bad effects as posset, nitro-glycerine, and mercury compounds, which often irritate and annoy the child organs as the nose, the lungs, throat, tors were known as the Salsbury and Parker combination of these parties at procuring indictments against these parties.

GETTING WITNESSES OUT OF THE WAY.

The material witness against Salsbury was one Thomas A. McDevitt, a nominal contractor for the principals, who held a large amount of expedites services. It seems that McDevitt has been indicted in Philadelphia for fraudulent bidding on contracts, and in this case he was chiefly sought. Woodward was directed by Attorney General MacVeagh and Postmaster General James A. Garfield to bring McDevitt before him, as his knowledge of the fraud in the Salsbury cases. McDevitt made a full disclosure of the facts within his knowledge, and was given by Mr. Woodward on implied promises of immunity in consideration of this implied promise was recognized by James A. McVeagh. McDevitt added that he would freely communicate any further information he might have concerning the conduct of the government. Notwithstanding this full disclosure on the part of McDevitt, and the implied promises of immunity, he was not indicted. Woodward, the Philadelphia indictment was brought to trial and McDevitt was convicted and sentenced to prison for three years. He appealed to the president and the attorney general in the trial and conviction of McDevitt, the solicitor general of the government having been present. Woodward testified also that McDevitt was the witness as he should have been, and that he was not indicted by the increased expenditures under Brady's administration for that service. There was a large amount of correspondence between the government and the post office department, but that the government took that witness and sent him to the penitentiary. It is due to McVeagh and James to state that the pledge made by the recruiting officers that without this order of the secretary, he would not feel authorized to make this enlistment.

BUT ON FRAUD AND PERJURY.

GENERAL HAZEN'S OBJECTIONS.

General Hazen repeats his belief that he was not in error in stating that the customs of the service were, and that excepting the four regiments, all branches of the army have, up to this time, been closed to colored men, and proceed:

I did not deem it in the province of the colonel of any of these branches of the army to depart from the rules of the service, and in making application to the colonel of any one of the white regiments to have it so, but the publications of the army do not indicate that the colored men have not been taken into the service.

The appointment of colored civil officers and of colored officers to the four colored regiments is not of the class of cases to which this question applies. The affirmative legislation creating colored regiments especially set apart by congress for this purpose. General Hazen says that the applicant has been notified to hold himself in readiness, and if the secretary of war directs him to be enlisted, but that he is informed by the recruiting officers that without this order of the secretary, he would not feel authorized to make this enlistment.

A GERMAN TRAGEDY.

Enacted in a Texas Town—An Officer's Despair.

DALLAS, Texas, September 29.—The lover's tragedy of yesterday, wherein George Foulsham slew Miss Annie Marlow, and then committed suicide has been the all-absorbing topic of conversation throughout the city. The bodies were visited by hundreds. The first investigation of the identity of the victims shows that they came from Fort Worth, and that their visit to Dallas was to consummate their murderous ends. Miss Marlow's body was taken to the hospital, and the body of her husband was buried here. Late developments recalled the fact that Foulsham was a young officer in the German army visiting America on a year's leave of absence. Foulsham and Miss Marlow had been staying at an obscure hotel, and were engaged in Germany in Germany refusing to sanction his marriage, and his leave of absence about experiencing they concluded to die rather than be separated.

ATLANTA, SEPTEMBER 30, 1884.

ONLY TWO DAYS LEFT

We have been publishing THE CONSTITUTION for many a year. We have never offered an advertising medium to our patrons that to the Trade issue that will be issued on October 1.

This paper will go into every neighborhood in Georgia and by the thousand into the adjoining states. It will absolutely pervade the territory tributary to Atlanta.

Only two days are left in which to secure space in this special edition. Copy should be sent in at once so that it can get proper classification and display.

No merchant or manufacturer should fail to have a place in this paper.

It has already progressed far enough to enable us to assure the public that the paper

WILL BE THE LARGEST

ever printed in America. It will be an honor to Georgia and to the south, and will make every Georgian proud of the establishment that can turn out such a paper.

SEND IN YOUR COPY AT ONCE, and do not fail to secure space.

Send copies of the paper will be for sale in newspapers at the counting room of THE CONSTITUTION at 5 cents each. No better way to show the resources of the south can be found than to send out copies of this paper.

TO THE CONSTITUTION'S GEORGIA CORRESPONDENTS.

Every correspondent of THE CONSTITUTION, located where there is a telegraph office, or in a town from which a telegraph office can be reached by midnight, will please report the results of Wednesday's election by wire on the day it occurs.

Correspondents not within reach of the telegraph will please send post cards by the first available mail.

Where there is a contest wire the names of all the candidates, each man's vote, approximately where it cannot be obtained accurately.

Give the general result and the issue involved in the contest, if any, whether independent, prohibition, state law or any other issue.

Telegraphic correspondents will please file their dispatches so as to be sent not earlier than 6 o'clock, but as soon as possible thereafter, requesting local operators to hold their wires open until the news is obtained.

Wire reports of any striking incidents and occurrences on the day of election.

The state election to-morrow. Let every democrat turn out.

The trip of Mr. Blaine through Ohio was resumed yesterday. There was but little speech-making. It is by the promise of official reward, privately made, that the Mulligan hero hopes to win back to his support faltering republicans.

No Georgia democrat should fail to-morrow to cast his ballot for the party nominees of governor, state officers and members of the legislature. By doing so you do your duty as a citizen and at the same time give your indorsement to the national democratic ticket. Turn the rascals out.

The reports which reach the civilized world occasionally from beleaguered Gordon, who has vainly waited the hour of rescue for nine months, read like a tale from the days when neither railroad nor telegraph line existed. The story of Gordon's imprisonment is disgraceful to the English government.

SIR RICHARD LINCOLN, in forcing a negro into the signal service corps of the army, is anxious to make capital for himself in the presidential election four years hence. He thinks the negro will last long enough to give him a boom at that time, and hence he violates law, precedent and propriety in ordering the enlistment of the negro Greene.

The report of the Springer committee, which is given to the public to-day, bears one lesson upon its face, and that is that the only way to bring punishment home to the plotters of the public treasury is "to turn the rascals out." Republican judges and department officials cannot enforce the law when they themselves are standing in mortal fear of the grand jury.

The election for Georgia's governor, state officers, and the legislature will occur to-morrow. It is needless to urge the importance of the democrats of the state polling their full vote. Besides its influence for good in the state it will have its effect upon the national election in November. Let every democrat go to the polls and cast his ballot. It is a question of only a few minutes, and is the duty of all who have the interest of the state at heart.

THE CONSTITUTION AND THE WORLD. The following dispatch, received by the editors of THE CONSTITUTION last night, speaks volumes:

NOW, September 29.—Editor: Constitution: The World of New York sends congratulations to THE WORLD of the south. Circulation to day, 100,000. Thanks to Joseph Pulitzer.

Editor and Proprietor New York World.

The success of THE WORLD is something marvelous. Mr. Joseph Pulitzer took it from William Henry Hurlbut when its circulation was less than 12,000, and when it had suspicion of Jay Gould's ownership hanging over it.

Without exception, the eastern newspapers predicted the early failure of this bold western journalist. They regarded his audacity as sheer foolhardiness. But Pulitzer made a succes from the very start. He has quadrupled the advertising patronage of THE WORLD and has made it incomparably stronger and better. He has put it in the front rank of the American press and has pushed its circulation up sharply above 100,000. It is a staunch democratic paper and is doing immense good for the democratic cause.

While Mr. Pulitzer was thus building up the WORLD, his brother, Mr. Albert Pulitzer started the Journal, a penny paper, and has made a splendid success.

THE CONSTITUTION, which Mr. Pulitzer complies as THE WORLD of the south, had on the same Sunday referred to the largest bona fide circulation it ever had, exceeding that of the Sunday before by over 300 copies, which represents its weekly growth since it has moved into its new quarters.

THE CONSTITUTION will print to-morrow a trade paper surpassing anything ever done by THE WORLD or any New York paper, and the field covered by it exceeds anything accomplished in American journalism with which we are acquainted.

WE HEARTILY RECOMMEND to the proprietors of THE CONSTITUTION the largest bona fide circulation it ever had, exceeding that of the Sunday before by over 300 copies, which represents its weekly growth since it has moved into its new quarters.

A COLD POISON.

CHRISTOPHER ATTEMPTS TO TAKE HIS LIFE.

Globe Fire—Mr. Long's Fall Shot—The Alpha Tau Omega—Mention and Items of General and Gathered About Masons.

ember 20.—[Special.]—A young man, D. Christopher attempted to end his life at the National hotel, by taking a large dose of laudanum for the last time taken the deadly drug since it did not show fatal results until Christopher is the son of the late Dr. J. R. who was engaged in the liquor business in Macon several years ago. Three years ago, he left his wife, a daughter, and the young man. He has money which has been handled by the death of the father the family in Macon, and would spend a portion of it on himself. A few days ago, young man's health became bad and he was unable to work. His illness incurred suspicion, so he was engaged in business by buying stock. He was with a man named Dunn, who took the advantage of him out of his money. In June, accompanied another and sister, he went to Tennessee, where he sold his goods, but he could not buy a derringer because he had no money. He became harassed and did not know what to do. The money he invested in his mother had dwindled away, and he employed himself in spring when he had twelve hundred dollars, and so he wrote to a friend here that he was at Dunn having given it from him. Dunn having given it from him, he sent it to a stock business with Mr. W. Phillips, added stock with Messrs. Hicks & Company, and after conferring with Mr. Hicks of the firm, made him a place and live knowing his embarrassed condition in Macon he is not having money, and that his sister would suffer through him. He would not tell the circumstances of his most urgent needs. He came to Atlanta and spent all his time in a room, and he was disappointed. Together they agreed he suffered and the men would not speak to his friends or say he was seen to be more down-ever, and nothing. On Monday he started for New Orleans, and on Tuesday he was in south street, and appeared more talkative. He entered Mr. H. G. Davis's shop, and after a few words sat down and began to write a letter. He passed him and he stopped writing and put the sheet in his pocket. In a few moments he was seen again leaning on his hand with eyes closed in a stupor. He knocked his head against the wall, and his eyes asked what was the matter he was.

DR. TANNER'S TESTIMONY.—A few minutes he vomited and relieved. He requested that Mr. right not be told the circumstances, as he was in a sleepy state, not seeming to care around him, his face was flushed, and he was in a feverish condition, and during the week she wrote to Mr. if he knew of her son. Wednesday she saw the National hotel, got into a room, and there she grew louder, and Mr. Jones, the proprietor, knocked at the door. No response, so he went in a side room and opened the door to see him lying on the bed with hands clenched in Christopher, with his eyes black and

THE FATAL DRUG.—He was soon hospitalized to sleep late in the night. Yet he was not dead, but lay in his bed, but hearing no response, she waited until morning the children heard in the room, saying that he was not dead. They then grew louder, and Mr. Jones, the proprietor, knocked at the door. No response, so he went in a side room and opened the door to see him lying on the bed with hands clenched in Christopher, with his eyes black and

DR. RATTIE IN HIS THROAT.—For Drs. Blackshear and Stevens, who had taken batteries were attached and other used to revive him to no avail. They then decided to have a bath and left him in a room, and Mr. Jones, the proprietor, knocked at the door. No response, so he went in a side room and opened the door to see him lying on the bed with hands clenched in Christopher, with his eyes black and

WHY HE DID THE DEED.—Notes were discovered, one to a Miss of Marshall, telling her the news of his death. The addressed to Messrs. Phillips and Hicks, is supposed to be the one written in the letter, and the other to his wife, dated Monday, the 21st, and is as follows:

Please sell the piano if you possand send me the money, and I will go to see to it.

I have suffered a deaths this week. I would have been seen my dear mama and sister and brother of my death. Please try to sell it. It is among strangers, without a name. Dr. H. D. Christopher, was telegraphed for, and will probably be here to-morrow.

The Alpha Tau Omega.

September 29.—[Special.]—The state of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, exists in the city October 20, during the premises to be of unusual interest. The gentlemen have been invited to be present, and the meeting will be held on the 21st, at 7 p.m., in the hall of the society, located on Peachtree street, and the election will be held on the 22nd.

TO-MORROW'S ELECTION.—The local orchestra is the best Atlanta has ever had and last night gave an admirable performance.

BRADSTREET'S BUDGET.

The List of Financial Disasters Reported by the Journal Law Week.

There were 201 failures in the United States reported to Bradstreet's during the week, against 206 in the preceding week, and 104, 178 and 112 in the corresponding weeks of 1883, 1882 and 1881, respectively.

The number of bankruptcies reported to Bradstreet's during the week, was 1,000, among which were 200 failures in the United States whose capital was less than $1,000. Among the suspensions reported were Burdett & Pond, rubber importers, New York City; Chadwick, New York, wholesale dry goods; Syracuse, N. Y.; Simon P. Miller, New York, hardware; Rochester, N. Y.; Newcomb-Buchanan Co., dress manufacturers, Ky.; Jacob Biereck, furniture manufacturers, Chicago; Logan national bank and Taylor, Fisher & Co., grain, West Liberty, Ohio; W. H.
